Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Rheumatism and Rheumatic gout are the most dreaded of all diseases, because there is no victim known that they are safe at no season, and a no age secure. Holloway's Ointment, after fomentation of the painful parts, gives greater relief than any other application. It must be diligently used to obtain the desirable result. It has been highly commended by rheumatic subjects of all ages and of both sexes for rendering their attacks less frequent and less agonising and for repressing the sour perspirations and soothing the nerves. In many cases Holloway's Ointment and Pills have proved the greatest blessings in removing rheumatism and rheumatic gout which has assailed persons previously and at the prime of life.

MEETINGS OF PUBLIC COMPANIES.

THE PERSEVERANCE FLOUR MILLS, &c.

THE second general meeting of shareholders of the company was held yesterday at 22, Church Gate Street. Dr. Dosabhoy Bejonjee, chairman of the board of directors, presiding. The directors' report for the year ending 31st December 1885 stated that the company had made a net profit of Rs. 3,335-13-5, which, with the balance of last year, amounted to Rs. 5,529-5-11. Owing to great competition in flour mills, on account of several stone mills erected during the year, together with large roller mills, the price of flour had gone down; and as the price of wool in England was lower, the business was greatly reduced. The directors had, however, made arrangements to secure more business this year. For the first six months, an ad interim dividend of Rs. 5 per share had been declared; and the directors proposed to give a dividend of Rs. 3 per share for the last six months. The amounts of both dividends would come to Rs. 4,712; and the directors recommended to carry the balance of Rs. 817-5-11 to next years' account. The directors' report and the accounts were adopted and confirmed. A dividend of Rs. 3 per share for the last six months was declared. Mr. Pestonjee Kawasjee was re-elected a director. Messrs. Sorabjee Rustomjee Bunsha and Atmaram Balcrishna were appointed auditors with a remuneration of Rs. 50 each.

THE NAIGAUM COTTON CLEANING AND MANUFACTURING COMPANY.

THE fifth general meeting of shareholders was held yesterday at the company's registered office, Church Gate Street, Dr. Dosabhoy Bejonjee, chairman of the board of directors, presiding. The directors' report for the year ending 31st December 1885 stated with regret that the company had made this year a profit of Rs. 70-8-9 only, which with the balance of last year, amounting to Rs. 5,018-9-9, which was carried forward to next year's account, making up to the high price of cotton and the low price of yarn ruling during the last year, the company had made little or no profit. As the machinery was adapted to spin from low class cotton, and the company had not obtained any dropping or fly during the year, the production was necessarily small. During the year, the new machinery for daily production had increased nearly 50 per cent; and a new water-heater was working satisfactorily. During the last three months, the work had greatly improved, and a profit of about Rs. 3,000 had been made. The production this month had increased about 100 lbs. daily; and better results were expected than in March. The directors' report and accounts were adopted and confirmed. Mr. Pestonjee Kawasjee, who retired, was re-elected a director. Messrs Sorabjee Rustomjee Bunsha and Atmaram Balcrishna were appointed auditors with a remuneration of Rs. 50 each for the year. The proceedings terminated with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

THE BOMBAY NATIVE PIECE GOODS MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION.

A COMMITTEE MEETING of the above Association was convened at 5-30 p.m., on Wednesday, the 21st instant, to consider the bill of lading now in force. It was decided that the following alterations be adopted with reference to the freight contract now running with the four Liners, viz., City, Anchor Clan and Hall, on the part and the Piece-Goods dealers on the other, to wit:—

It was agreed between the contracting parties, that the drawing up of a form of bill of lading be left to the committee of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce; and from the correspondence received from the Secretary it appears that the matter was under discussion at the committee meeting of that Chamber on the subject. The deputy chairman of the Association brought before the meeting two forms of bills of lading, which he had received from the Secretary, one of which, he explained, had been suggested by the Liners, and the other recommended by the Indian Committee of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce, as also correspondence from Messrs. Ralli Brothers, which their agents at London had forwarded to them, giving in extenso their reasons for disapproving the form of bill of lading proposed by the Liners and their views in support of the form which is called "the Indian Form." The form of bill of lading Outwards, Form A, 414, Suez Canal, which was recommended by the Indian committee of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce, was then read and discussed clause by clause, and after some alterations and additions had been made in it, it was unanimously resolved that the said Form A be approved of. It was further resolved that the deputy chairman of the Association be authorized to wire to the Manchester Chamber of Commerce to the above effect.

After the usual vote of thanks to the deputy chairman, who presided in absence of the chairman, the meeting was dissolved at 10 p.m.

AUSTRALASIAN HOTELS.

MR. G. A. SALA, in one of the series of articles he is contributing to the Daily Telegraph, describes the hotels with which he has made acquaintance in "The Land of the Golden Fleece." The hotel system of India is admittedly wretched, and after Mr. Sala's condemnation of the accommodation he had to put up with in Australia, one feels inclined to regret that the evils and shortcomings of hotel life in this country are not to be similarly dealt with. He writes:—

The few—the very few—even tolerably good hotels existing in Australia proper are, naturally enough, to be found in the capitals of the respective colonies. It would be hard indeed, in particular, if in such cities as Sydney and Melbourne, each with its population of between two and three hundred thousand, the stranger could not light upon some hostelry or another where he could be made decently comfortable. There is a limited number of such establishments in Sydney. Still I fear that it is undeniable that the metropolis of New South Wales is, in the matter of hotel accommodation, lamentably behind the capital of Victoria. In Sydney I stopped at an hotel patronised by wealthy squatters, merchants, and bank managers—practically the only aristocracy to be found in the colonies, and of the three classes named the bank managers are the lordliest—and by newly-arrived strangers with more money than experience. To this hotel, which I disdain to name, I betook myself, for my sins, on first landing at Sydney, early in March, 1885. For board and lodging, which in a fourth-rate provincial town in England would have been dear at five-and-twenty shillings a week, I was mulcted at the rate of thirty shillings a week and found myself at a loss. At the time I was alone—as I am now, for good and all. I indulged, to be sure, in the luxury of a private sitting-room, for the use of which I was extravagantly surcharged. In the matter of doors and windows which daintily chamber, or chairs and tables, with "ganic" legs, cats and cockroaches, this apartment, with the adjacent bedroom, to reach which you had to step out or window and walk for some distance along a narrow ledge, left nothing to be desired. From every other point of view everything was a desideratum. For the mosquitoes with which after sundown the house absolutely swarmed the proprietor was obviously not responsible; and I freely admit that the lively companions in question were not charged for. I forbore to grumble either at the cookery or the shelter; for I had been timeously warned by a friend that if you did grumble the proprietor was apt to tell you, more or less politely—that you might take up your quarters somewhere else. I was content when I planned to a civil but weak-kneed waiter the amount of a bill quite preposterous in its inflation to tell him that the establishment would have no more of my company and that I was well out of it—I mean the establishment. I visited Sydney on many subsequent occasions, and was so fortunate as to find a fair amount of comfort at the Sydney Hotel, as I was able to obtain any assistance down-stairs. The servant-girls who condescended to officiate as chambermaids were—those at Melbourne and Ballarat always excepted—civil enough, but lazy, bewildering, dense. The boots were, I believe, educated in the Roman Catholic convent orphanages which abound in the colonies. The worst were recent importations from England, but who had been instructing colonial boots in the art to be learned by little Jack Horner "in the corner" I am unable to tell; they were not "slaves and beasts of burden."

In Tasmania we were so fortunate as to find two comfortable hotels—one at Hobart, where there was an excellent "table d'hôte," the cuisine of which, and withal so stately, that might have been butler to Lord Chesterfield, footman to Sir Charles Grandison, and body-servant to Beau Brummell; the other at Launceston, in New Zealand we found the hotels superior on the whole to those in Australia. At Auckland Mr. and Mrs. Craig keep a capital house, which they are enlarging to palatial dimensions. Of the quality of the hotels at Wellington I am obviously unable to say anything, for the reason that, although I visited the capital three times, I never was able to obtain any hotel accommodation there; but at Christchurch we put up, over and over again, at an admirable house, the Clarendon, and at Dunedin, the finest, not only in Maoriland, but in the colonies generally, I sojourned at a tastefully furnished throughout; the private rooms are numerous and luxurious, and the public dining-room is a most grandiose apartment. The establishment is conducted entirely on Transatlantic lines, one of the Messrs. Watson having spent a whole year in the States, journeying from city to city, between San Francisco and New York, for the purpose of studying in situ the American hotel system. Electric bells, bar-rooms, saloon, telegraphs, baths, escaliers de service—nearly everything that the traveller can possibly require in finds ready to his hand at this exceptionally commanding and commodious caravanserai, which most forty thousand pounds. And hitherto the Grand Hotel, Dunedin, has proved the reverse of a paying concern. How devoutly must its proprietors wish that some beneficent magician might arise to spirit the magnificent but unremunerative edifice away bodily, and drop it down in the middle of George-Street, Sydney! So far I have spoken only of hotels which were in some respect or another good. Had I space I might glance at others, which, while they were fairly tolerable, as Kyneton, Castlemaine, Maryborough, Ipswich, Rockhampton, Gympie, Tamworth, Singleton, Toowoomba, Warwick, Stanthorpe, Teetertield., Glen-Innes, Inverell, Armidale, West Maitland Barbigo, Hubbo, Rudgee, Orange, Yass, Gouburn, Albury, Glenelg, Mount Barker and Cawler. But what are these against the host of wretched hotels, the ricketty shanties, the crazy weatherboard cabins miscalled inotels, in which days or weeks are passed, and good April, 1885, to bide my miserable head, rarely paying less than two pounds a day for food and shelter, which would ave been dear at five shillings. I have had to sleep and to work in, comparatively speaking, a hindcage, a roosting-place, hyena's den, a hen-coops, a dog-kennel, and a pigstye.

DIRECTIONS FOR THE USE OF [illegible] valuable specific is that a number of [illegible] water is required, for persons of different ages, strong or weak constitutions, and according to the nature of the disease. A child a month old requires a teaspoonful of water; a child a year old requires a dessertspoonful; a child from two to five years old requires a tablespoonful; a child from five to ten years old requires a dessertspoonful; a child from ten to fifteen years old requires a tablespoonful; a person of weak constitution requires a wineglassful; a person of strong constitution requires a tumblerful. Two Morrison's Pills are a dose for a person of ordinary constitution. Where the stomach is very weak, one pill may be taken the first night, two the second night, and so on, gradually increasing the number of pills until the system is brought under the influence of the medicine. Where the stomach is very strong, three pills may be taken the first night, four the second night, and so on, gradually increasing the number of pills until the system is brought under the influence of the medicine. COOKERY IN AUSTRALIA.

IN narrating his experiences of the cookery met with in Australia, Mr. Sala, one of the greatest authorities living with respect to the culinary art, pens the following condemnation of the colonies:—

As regards food, mutton, which might have been good—albeit generally destitute of fat—had it been fairly roasted or boiled, but was hot been thrus by an infernal Chinaman into a horrid arrangement known as a "colonial oven," and there nearly scorched to a cinder; beefsteaks, scarcely ever broiled, but fried, apparently in kerosene and soot; scarcely any vegetables beyond plain and badly-boiled potatoes. The soil of these wonderful lands would grow every imaginable kind of green meat, but the colonials do not care much about market-gardening. Out of South Australia and Tasmania, "The craft of Father Adam" does not pay. Its pursuit is disdainfully left to the Chinaman, and when John Chinaman fails to arrive in the morning, with his two baskets slung to a pole across his shoulder, there will be no vegetables at the hotel where you are residing. So is it with fish. The sea swarms with this wholesome and delicious food—with snoke, bream, gruper, turpeo, schnapper, rock cod, nanigay, fiddler, and kingfish, to say nothing of oysters and crayfish; but away from the great towns—which you may count on the fingers of one hand—there is very seldom any fish to be had even in a township on the railway, within a few miles of a seaport. Fish markets are few and far between. There are people who fish for profit; but fisher folk, as a class, are non-existent in Australia. The calling does not pay. So the unhappy travellers at the hovels miscalled hotels are fain to fall back on 'scorched mutton and sootily dried beef, with the eternal boiled potato. Sometimes the meat is cut into dice and put into a deep dish with a gallon of water, and grease over it. It is shoved into the inevitable colonial oven and called a pie. Sometimes an attenuated fowl or a very tough duck makes its appearance. Dairy-fed pork is not often seen; but there is usually a quantity of pickled pork on table, cured ham and worse cured bacon. The last is nauseous enough to have come from America, where, notwithstanding all the wondrous pig-slaughtering and pork-packing stockyards of Cincinnati and Chicago, the art of curing breakfast bacon is not yet understood. There are American hams which when boiled in champagne are palatable dishes, as I remember to have admitted in America, as in Australia, are very nasty—hard, intolerably salt, a great deal too lean, and clumsily smoked. The Australian sausages, which are certainly home-made, are a little more indigestible than the American article, but good nevertheless. The Australians are too careless to put a sufficiency of bread crumbs into their sausages, or to season them properly. As I have elsewhere pointed out, they are remarkably faithful to what they know of the faithful reproductions of English sausages, polonies, saveloys, and black puddings. It would be unjust, however, to dismiss the subject of hotels in the Australian colonies without mentioning that, although you are occasionally regaled with condensed milk—the landlady of one establishment where we were treated to that delicacy kept fifteen cows, but she did not care about milking—and although the butter is not infrequently oleomargarine the real butter, the coffee is generally very good, because it is usually made from prepared essence of coffee imported from home. The sugar is almost invariably the coarse kind of white moist. Loaf sugar is rarely placed on the table. Amazing quantities of Worcestershire sauce are consumed. If you want dry toast they bring you up sundry slabs, hot and reddish-brown, of nearly an inch thick. Then, if you are hard because there are no open ranges at which the bread could be properly toasted. It has been shoved into the colonial oven, and baked into indigestible hardness. Eggs are as a rule plentiful, and you can have them boiled, fried, or poached; biscuits and jam, I mainly supported existence when traveling in the bush. Stay; there was always soup—a soup with a good strong fortifying stock. Plenty of meat—a plenty of meat in it. The Australian soup, for those who like a thick and slab mess of meat pottage, is really not unpalatable; only the beast of a Chinaman persists in putting scraps of offal—bits of bullock's "internal arrangements"—into his soup, and so renders it horribly distasteful to those who abhor offal. Such a thing as a clear soup, or a purée of game, is unexpected out of the great cities. The tea is more frequently bad than good. The bad, from the stalks occasionally found in the decoction, is popularly known as "broom and rails" tea. There is always plenty of jam on the bush hotel table. Anthony Trollope accused the Australians of making their jam from pumpkins. I see no reason why they should not do so if the jam be nice; and I found the jam very appetising and delicious, although a trifle too sweet. Pastry, worthy of the name, you must not look for in the bush; but you will occasionally get something which passes current for a custard pudding or blanc-mange. These have been made from preparations of order imported from home. The bread throughout Australia is splendid, and were there any good cheese to eat with it life at an open-air station would be a little more endurable than it actually is. I have had—as I did in Victoria and New South Wales, which are famous for cheese—nothing but the most nasty cream cheese, and every caseous substance better than a bad imitation of our North Wiltshire. In concluding this notice of the Australian bush hotels, so far as regards their cookery, let me observe that wines and spirits are charged for at simply extravagant and extortionate rates. Fifteen shillings is the ordinary price of a bottle of very inferior champagne, and proportionate overcharges are made for all imported liquors. The colonial beer most in vogue—Tooth's—is both dear and bad; but some of the Australian wines are magnificent, and all, although normally too strong, too young, and slightly cashy to the taste, are cheap. But the Australian bush hotel-keepers are not reluctant to let their guests drink the native vintages. They prefer to sell them imported brands; and, when they do begin to place Australian wines on their list, these wines are charged double or treble what they would fetch at a retail store. It does not pay the bush hotel-keepers to sell Australian wines.

M. RENAN ON THE OLD TESTAMENT.

IN the Revue des Deux Mondes (March 1 and 15) M. Renan has been publishing his views about the composition of the Old Testament. The earlier books chiefly occupy him, from Genesis to the Second Book of Kings. M. Renan starts from the discovery, of Astruc, a medical man of the last century, that the same name is often, in Genesis, recounted twice over, as if the versions of two authors had been combined. We have all heard of the Jehovist and the Elohist, the two authors, said M. Renan still more popular than ever, though he admits that they are hardly to be justified. He sets aside the legal part of the early books, Leviticus and the rest, as for the most part posterior to Josias, and even to the Captivity. Ezekiel's plan of the Temple, and Ezra's proposal to found the theocracy on the Law, were the first steps of these processes was the production of another book, the Deuteronomy. Then came, in Josias' time, the discovery of the Deuteronomy and the Lives of the Prophets. The new book was probably written by Jeremiah, and was "pious fraud" of the priests, who wished to make the people believe that it had been found in the Temple. Whether they were real discoveries, or whether they contained another, one version was shortened. The result of these processes was the production of another book, the Pentateuch, which was the work of the priests,

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 22.

The trade records of the week have been devoid of any special feature of noteworthy importance. The receipts of produce from the districts have been large, of Wheat and Cotton exceptionally so, but they are all moving off under previous contracts, leaving little margin for the creation of new business. Nor are the home telegrams of a character to promise activity. A certain amount of steadiness no doubt prevails in the markets for our leading staples, and prices appear to have reached a level from which any further reduction of moment will only take place under considerable pressure; but the demand is dragging and unsatisfactory, making it very difficult for merchants to bring operations to a working point. Respecting imports very much the same may be said. Values are maintained very fairly for Cotton Goods, Yarns and Metals, although the off-take scarcely keeps pace with the imports, and firm offers lead to a very limited actual business. Freights have undergone no practical change this week. The regular liners have booked Wheats and Seeds for the U. K. at 13s. 9d. to 16s. 3d., but for Cotton £1 to £1-1-3 per ton remains about the level of the market, and these are the figures for general cargo for Continental ports. Money continues quiet and unchanged, and Stocks and Shares, if inactive, are comparatively steady in value. Exchange recovered slightly in the earlier part of the week, but at the close looks as wanting in permanent strength as ever.

MONEY.—No alteration of any kind has taken place. With the Bank the official minimum for loans secured by Government Paper remains at 6 per cent., but outside the same accommodation can be had at 4 per cent. per annum, and if anything we should say it is easier to borrow than lend funds at that. The last weekly return of the Bank of Bombay showed a reduction of 7½ lakhs, but of this only 3 lakhs was due to enlarged trade requirements which at this period of the season may be looked upon as equivalent to no movement at all.

EXCHANGE.—Although we close practically at about the same level as Thursday last the week has not been without some slight fluctuations. To begin with the tendency was weaker, quotations being reduced 1-32d. on mail-day bringing the ready rates down to 1s. 5 23-32d. for demand Bank Bills and 1s. 5 29-32d. for 4 months Credits. On Saturday, however, a marked inclination to sell was apparent, under which Bank Bills hardened up 1-32d., followed by a similar move in private paper on Monday. On Tuesday in advance of 1-32d. all round was established, but yesterday there were indications about of a backward tendency, although rates were unaltered. To-day the tone has been extremely quiet, and the extent of business exceedingly small, a reduction of 1-32d. in the Banks' buying figures having failed to bring out any private bills worth mentioning. For ready bills the following are closing quotations:—

Bank Bills on demand		1s. 5 29-32d.	per rupee
Do.	Telegraphic Transfer	1s. 5½d.	,,
Do.	3 months' sight	1s. 5 27-32d.	,,

For future delivery the Banks are drawers at a reduction of 1-32d. per rupee per month up to July, but to buy they quote the ready rate up to the end of next month with 1-32d. less for June delivery. A fairly large business was done for the first two or three days following the departure of last mail, and comparatively better terms were obtainable by remitters for future delivery; but yesterday and to-day transactions have been limited to a degree, neither buyers nor sellers of bills having occasion apparently to operate to any extent. Under the circumstances Government may be considered to have done pretty well with their Council drawings of late. For the week ending on Tuesday they had succeeded in placing 40 lakhs altogether, while at the weekly biddings in London yesterday they found buyers for the whole 20 lakhs offered, in drafts "at 1s. 5 3d., in addition to which special allotments to the extent of Rs. 3,00,000 in bills and 2 lakhs in transfers are reported—presumably at 1s. 5 13-16d. Although this necessarily shows a considerable loss on the rate estimated for the week, it is so far satisfactory to find that the proportion in the amounts advertised for the weekly biddings does not restrict sales by special allotment—Government are thus enabled to keep slightly ahead of their actual requirements, and so place themselves in a better position for facing the slack season. [illegible] but, venturing much of a prediction, a lower sterling [illegible] at now current.

[illegible] remittance [illegible] than Council drafts. Shipments accordingly keep light, being limited probably to previous purchases. Reuter reports £40,000 again from London for the past week, the same as the week previous.

The position of Silver in the Bombay Mint as shown by the statement published in to-day's Government Gazette is as follows:—

	Rs.
Value of Silver in the Mint on 10th April 1886	60,85,914
Silver received during the week	6,35,849
	70,81,800
New Coin paid during the week	12,00,000
	58,81,800
Silver belonging to private individuals	35,58,633
	94,40,223
Last week	86,61,763

GOVERNMENT PAPER.—The extent of business done in paper this week has been very small, and values have undergone few changes. Fours have ruled between Rs. 97¾ and Rs. 97 13-16 throughout, closing at the latter figure, both for ready and delivery at the end of this month. Fours-and-a-half have occasionally been quoted at Rs. 101¼, but Rs. 101 has been the more general rate, and we give that as the figure to-day.

Municipal 5 per cent. bonds are quoted at 100¾, Port Trust 4 per cents at Rs. 91.

SHARES.—Great quietness has been the prevailing characteristic of the market of late; speculation except amongst the brokers themselves is quite at a standstill, and in the majority of cases any movement in values has been in favor of buyers. In Banks the only alteration quoted is in Bank of Bombays which have hardened up from Rs. 717½ to Rs. 718½. Spinning and Weaving Mills are nearly all weaker, the firmer tone maintained in Cotton being less favorable for those mills whose production is mostly sold ahead. No doubt well-managed concerns are still working to a good profit, but they are not doing so well as they promised some five weeks or a month ago when Cotton was Rs. 10 to Rs. 12 per candy cheaper. The only Companies in which any advance is quoted are, the Mazagon which has recovered from Rs. 185 to Rs. 187½, and the Great Eastern which has improved from Rs. 900 to Rs. 907½. A decline is reported in Hyderabad of Rs. 40, in Dhurrumseys of Rs. 12½, in Southern Mahratta of Rs. 20, in Kalianee, Coorla, and Luckmidas Khimjee of Rs. 10, in Ahmedabad of Rs. 7½, and in most other Companies of Rs. 5 per share. In Press Companies the few alterations to notice are also adverse. Colaba have declined Rs. 10, Mofussil Rs. 5, Bombay and New Indian Rs. 2½. In the Miscellaneous list the movements are comparatively unimportant. Tramcar and Co., Ltd., are Rs. 10 richer at Rs. 1,150. Port Canning Land Co. have advanced [illegible] to Rs. 307½. Ice Flour Mills, Bombay Ice Trading Co. and Rs. 722½. Bombay Gas Co. have declined Rs. 169. Western India are offering at par without finding buyers.

IMPORTS.

PIECE-GOODS.—A very quiet tone has pervaded the market both on the spot and to arrive, and if prices are not actually quoted lower we should call them tending in favor of buyers in all descriptions of goods except the lower qualities of bleached Mulls, Jaconets and Nainsooks. Of these supplies are comparatively light, while they are at the same time in considerable request, and prices are As. 1 to As. 2 per piece better. For the regular run of Greys however the demand barely keeps pace with the supply and dealers are very willing sellers. The clearances from the bazar during the week are estimated at 2,000 to 2,500 packages of all kinds:

Of local made goods the sales to put at about 2,500 packages, prices being unchanged.

TWIST.—For imported Yarns both Grey and Dyed the enquiry remains slack at about previous prices, say As. 8 to As. 7 8 for 40s Water and As. 7½ to As. 8 per 40s Mule. Local Spinnings have been in better request owing to higher quotations from China, and business to the extent of some 7,000 bales is reported at in some cases an improvement of 1-16 to 1 anna per lb. The prospect of a lower range of freights to the further east owing to a new line of steamers being announced has also had some effect in bringing out buyers for shipment.

In connection with the trade in Dyed Yarns it is worthy of mention that a new local company for dyeing yarns and ultimately goods has just been successfully floated. The company which has been at work for about five years is understood [illegible] is [illegible] seems no reason [illegible] this [illegible] the original [illegible] is [illegible] history of [illegible] considerable importance.

METALS.—Copper has been rather dull of sale latterly and prices are As. 1 per cwt. lower. We now quote Brazets in bundles of 31 32 to Rs. 32½. For Yellow Metal on the [illegible] market is quite steady and if anything rates are the turn dearer. Iron is dull and slightly weaker in value.

COALS are still in poor demand. Of Cardiff there are sellers at Rs. 14 to Rs. 15 according to quality and of Davison's Welsh Hartley at Rs. 14½, but buyers hold for at least 1 As. per ton less.

EXPORTS.

COTTON.—The past week so far as business for [illegible] has been quiet to dulness.

From Liverpool the telegrams continue firm and steady in tone, but Continental buyers of Surats seem determined to keep aloof, and sales have been quite inpracticable on the other side at anything like a parity with current prices here. As the result very little buying has taken place from day to day, except in occasional parcels of ready Cotton to complete shipments, and the regular purchases for the local mills which are now a very considerable feature of the market.

Prices have undergone very little change since last steamer left. Broach is Re. 1 to Rs. 2 per candy dearer on the weak as the crop is about exhausted, but other kinds are where changed at all Re. 1 to Rs. 2 per candy lower. Bhownuggurs and Dholleras are that much easier although the supplies are still comparatively light, but it seems evident that the contracts for this month's delivery have not been heavy. Of Omras the receipts continue remarkably free, and the quality is keeping fairly well up. The home demand for the growth however is most limited, and exporters are the more chary about touching it as very heavy allowances are said to have been given off some of the earlier shipments of the low grades, which have been arbitrated upon in Liverpool. Differences of ½d. to 7-16d per lb. are said to have been quite frequent, and we should not be surprised to find a stand being made against selling subject to Liverpool arbitration. In the same way that was so successfully adopted against London arbitrations on Bengals some three years ago.

The receipts of new Cotton into Bombay this season we estimate up to date as follows:—

	Bales.
Berar	253,000
Bengal	173,000
Khandeish	116,000
Broach	120,000
Dholleras, &c.	70,000
Surat and Nugger	26,000
Hingunghaut	16,000
	786,000

The movements of Cotton to date show the following comparisons with the two previous years:—

WHEAT.—The receipts from the districts have been larger than ever this week, but owing partially to steadier accounts from home and mainly to the heavy contracts for this month's delivery which dealers have to fill prices have been advanced As. 2 to As. 3 per cwt. The rise from the lowest point at which contracts were made is some 12 to 14 per cent., and the result is that some four or five dealers who have also been caught similarly in Linseed have declared themselves unable to meet their liabilities. From what we can learn the differences are not large probably inside of a lakh altogether, but it naturally is an unpleasant feature in the trade, and has a tendency to advance prices. We quote:—

No. 1 White Pessy	Rs. 4-2	per cwt.
Laskari	,, 3-14-6	,,
Khatha	,, 3-10-0 to 3-11-0	,,
Red Ahmedabad	,, 3-13-0 to 13-6	,,

SEEDS.—Linseed is not arriving at all freely, and some of the upcountry dealers are credited with a desire to establish a corner in the article for next month's deliveries. The price latterly however has been rather weaker at Rs. 6-3-6 per cwt. Rapeseed is quiet and unchanged at Rs. 5-10 for Yellow Guzerat, Rs. 5-5 for Yellow and Rs. 4-10 to Rs. 4-11 per cwt. for Red Cawnpore. Of Gingelly the arrivals are now contracting to very small figures but White is unchanged at Rs. 7, while Mixed is As. 3 to As. 4 per cwt. lower at Rs. 6-10.

The comparative imports of Wheat and Seeds are as follows:—

REMENYI CONCERTS.
To Messrs. SOUNDY & CO., Ld., Bombay.
GENTLEMEN,—Allow me to thank you for the pleasure I have received while using your SCHIEDMAYER'S GRAND PIANO at our Concerts, in this city. It is certainly the best Piano, to my knowledge, in India, and I could wish for no better.
For quality of tone, brilliancy, singing quality, power and even action, it is equal to the Great American Pianofortes.
I shall look forward to again playing upon one of your excellent Pianos.
Yours, &c.,

AFFAIRS IN BURMA.

SERIOUS ENCOUNTERS WITH DACOITS.

THREATENED ATTACK ON MANDALAY.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

RANGOON, APRIL 22.

Shway Lan Myewoon, late Commander-in-Chief of Theebaw's army, arrived here to-day as prisoner for deportation to Port Blair for being implicated in a conspiracy against the British Government.

Brigadier-General Norman also arrived to-day from Bhamo, bound home on leave.

The rebels along the line of railway show increased activity, causing surprise that the railway has not been interfered with any way.

Last Tuesday, Lieut. Green, Assistant Commissioner, with a party of the 18th Bengal Lancers, attacked a gang of 170 rebels near Zeegine, and routed them, after killing six, and wounding others, who were carried off by the gang. Our casualities were 3 sepoys wounded, and a subedar, who, after gallantly leading the troops in the fight, died from sunstroke the same day.

Colonel Start, with 50 men and one officer, 7th Bombay Infantry, posted at Henzada, on hearing of a considerable force of rebels, occupied Tandaw, on the Tharrawady side of the river, went and attacked them, dislodging them from the village after a short skirmish on very difficult ground. The dacoits retired in the direction of Mhuhla on the railway line. One sepoy was killed and two wounded. The loss inflicted on the dacoits has not yet been ascertained.

Two strong parties were sent off from Tharrawaddy to cut off their retreat.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

MANDALAY, APRIL 22.

Accounts from Kyoung Myoung say that on the 20th the enemy succeeded in entering the fort, but was quickly driven out, losing 3 killed and 30 wounded.

Shwaybo was attacked at 4 o'clock on the morning of the 20th, during the absence of the Flying Column, which however returned at 7 o'clock. There have been several fights at Kyoukhay, the Bogmens becoming bolder.

On the 17th a Madras Lancer was thrown off his horse, and the horse, lance and carbine were captured by the enemy.

The Kuonyon affair arose from the refusal of Sawbrah to pay the fine of Rs. 2,000 inflicted for raiding.

Six companies of the 27th Punjabees are detained at Myingyan.

An attack on Mandalay is threatened on the 24th.

MAHARAJAH DHULEEP SINGH.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, APRIL 22.

The Maharajah Dhuleep Singh has landed at Aden by the order of Government. Since he left England, it has been discovered that he had published a proclamation evidently intending to stir up mischief, and therefore he was stopped until matters are satisfactorily cleared up.

[REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.]

MR. CHAMBERLAIN ON THE IRISH QUESTION.

LONDON, APRIL 22.

In a speech made by Earl Spencer at Newcastle yesterday, he warmly supported Mr. Gladstone's Bills for Home Rule and Land Purchase.

Mr. Chamberlain, speaking at Birmingham, said he would support Home Rule if Mr. Gladstone agrees to the retention of the Irish members in the Imperial Parliament and gives Ulster a separate assembly.

ELECTION NEWS.

The Right Hon'ble George John Shaw-Lefevre, the Liberal candidate, has been elected for Bradford by a large majority in the place of the late Right Hon'ble W. E. Forster, defeating Mr. Hoare, the Conservative candidate.

AN ULTIMATUM TO GREECE.

The Great Powers have approved the proposal of the British Government to send an ultimatum to Greece, calling on her to disarm within eight days.

MR. A. H. PUGNKETT, City Magistrate, Poona, will continue to conduct the duties of Cantonment Magistrate during the absence of Colonel LaTouche, who went on two months' privilege leave on the 5th instant.

THE following is the official summary of the Bombay Presidency Season Reports for the week ending the 14th instant:—Scarcity of drinking water in parts of Khandesh, Belgaum and Dharwar, and of fodder in parts of Khandesh and Upper Sind Frontier. Fever and small-pox in parts of ten, and cattle-disease in parts of six districts. Other conditions unchanged.

GENERAL WHITE is arranging to send a small expedition very shortly to the ruby mines at Momiet, where work has been suspended owing to the disturbed state of the country.

TILL a few years ago Burma and Ceylon furnished the world with all its sapphires. But some ten years ago a mine was discovered near Bangkok, and since then the stone has been found in the Himalayas near Simla. The result has been an immense fall in the value of sapphires. Indeed, they are almost unsaleable unless they are of the finest quality and good size. A stone which ten years ago was worth £30 per carat is now worth not more than £6 or £7. In fact, the value of jewels depends very largely on their rarity—of which a striking illustration is the fall of [illegible] if it is ever discovered that the rocky ridges of Burma actually exist in order to secure a larger out put the public will learn the same lesson.

TOPAZES and spinels of good quality are also found in Burma, but far more important is jade, a green-coloured white serpentine, the mines of which are situated to the west of Mogoung, in the valley of the Chindwin branch of the Kyendwin. The mines are worked by the wild Kachyens, the jade being sold to Chinese dealers. Part is taken via Bhamo into Yunnan, and part comes down the Irrawaddy to Rangoon, whence it is exported to China. The value of this portion was in the year 1883 no less than £80,000, which may appear to you a very large sum. But it is the favourite stone of the Chinese, who make it not only into cups and bowls but into personal ornaments, for which the finer kinds are reserved. To satisfy the Chinese taste jade ought to be of a pure bright green like an emerald or pure white, though it is of course only translucent, not transparent.

MR. T. J. C. PLOWDEN proceeds to Kashmir to relieve Sir O. St. John as Resident. Colonel Euan Smith succeeds Mr. Plowden as Resident at Oodeypore in Meywar, though he will not take up his appointment for some little time, as the state of his health has necessitated his taking immediate short leave to England.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, accompanied by General Chapman, Colonel Pole Carew and Colonel Gatacre, arrived at Peshawar on the afternoon of the 18th. They were to go through the Khyber as far as Lundi Kotal, returning on the 21st. Yesterday His Excellency was to start for Simla.

THE Hon'ble Lionel Tennyson, eldest son of the Poet Laureate, as we have already heard by telegraph, was alive when the Chusan arrived at Colombo; but there seems to have been but little hope that he could live to reach England. A private letter from a gentleman on board, written as the steamer was entering Colombo Harbour on the 11th instant, says:—"Poor Tennyson is still alive, though I fear there is little hope of his ultimate recovery. He has been tapped to-day for a third abscess in the liver, and he has also an abscess in the lungs. The ship's doctor has called in Surgeon-Major Raye. I fear poor Tennyson's time is only a matter of days, but the doctors say there is still a faint hope."

RUMOURS have lately been afloat to the effect that Mr. H. Millett, Chief Judge of the Calcutta Small Causes Court, now on furlough, will, on his return to India early in January next, remain in office for a short time only, as the period of his service expires in July 1887, under the rules applicable to Barister Judges of the Presidency Courts.

TOWARDS the end of this month, or in the beginning of May, two comets will be visible to the naked eye in this country. Barnard's comet should become visible not far from Andromeda, and Fabry's comet should appear near Cassiopeia. The latter comet will become very bright in the earlier part of May.

IT is said that careful housewives housed in officer's quarters at Quetta, when they see that a storm is approaching, lock up everything—clothes, books, papers—into trunks, turn up the carpets, bring out all the bath tubs, basins, &c., and "wait (with resignation) till the clouds roll by," and the depressing drip-drip is over.

THE quantity of tea exported from China and Japan to Great Britain from the commencement of the season to the 30th of March last, was 147,233,694 lbs, as compared with 145,466,138 lbs., during the corresponding period of last season. The exports to the United States and Canada during the same period were 81,292,923 lbs., as compared with 71,519,237 lbs.

THE Government of New South Wales has granted the Colonial and Indian Exhibition Commission a sum of £3,000 for the purchase of silver in ingots. These ingots will be recast in Sydney into small bars, with which it is proposed to erect a trophy in the shape of a pyramid, which will be 6ft. in height, and will give visitors a good idea of the silver resources of New South Wales.

BISHOP MOORHOUSE'S departure from Melbourne gave rise to a number of demonstrations in his honour. On the 8th March a magnificent public meeting was held at the Town Hall to present the Bishop with an address of congratulation on his selection for the See of Manchester. The ladies of Melbourne, held a meeting at the same place on the 6th to make a presentation to Mrs. Moorhouse. The Mayor of Melbourne presided at another meeting on the afternoon of the 8th, at which a thousand clergymen were present, and a number of addresses were presented. A third meeting was held in the evening at which the Governor presided. The Bishop had a magnificent reception, and delivered an address, in reply to the presentation of an address from the citizens, of great power and eloquence. The Governor announced that subscriptions for the presentation had already reached £1,200, but it could not be made yet, as there were still contributions from several districts to come in, and a number of persons desired further delay to enable them to subscribe.

SIR T. MADHAVRAO ON CASTE AND PROFESSION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Raja Sir T. Madhavrao's opinion on the choice of a profession, delivered at the Wesleyan Mission School prize distribution, and extracted in your issue of this morning, appears to me to be one-sided and superficial, and not such as might be expected from a man of his experience and acuteness. Like the orthodox of his caste who believe in their birth from the mouth of Brahma, he gloats over the good old times when each of the four Hindoo castes reverently carried on its own hereditary work, and laments the degeneracy of these days when "the cultivator, the weaver, the trader, the soldier, the artizan, the Brahman, and perhaps even the barber, one and all were fired with a desire to train their sons for Government employment or other sedentary intellectual employment." Surely, underneath this universal mania the experienced administrator and acute thinker ought to have found not merely thoughtless individual folly, but some propelling force, general principle of human nature or economic law, and he should have analysed its working and suggested a remedy, instead of merely denouncing the common rush to the schools as an evil; though, by the way, with all this rush the percentage of men educated to the uneducated population in the country is trifling.

The principle of hereditary occupation has done India enough harm, political and moral, social and economical. It continued unchecked, unbroken, even as the political supremacy of the Brahmins lasted it has now ceased to exist, and the [illegible] have this inevitable result while Sir [illegible] deplores, unreasonably I think. He is particularly hard on the barbers for venturing out of their old line; but why should they not? Did not that much hospised class, whose freedom of profession existed, was given to Lord Chancellor to England? And if we had the same liberty here, might not one of our knights of the razor become a Sunkaracharya or Diwan? Nature is by no means exclusively partial to the Brahmin, and the country has surely been deprived of the benefits of his mental and moral gifts by this crystallization of trades into castes. The history of Europe and America, and even China, as contrasted with our own, shows that less is lost and much more is gained by following in the choice of professions the bents implanted in individuals by Nature, than the iron rule imposed by caste on our vast population.

Then, again, Sir T. Madhavrao seems to think non-Brahmins shun lucrative fields of hereditary labour, and seek intellectual occupations, even though starving. This is rather an assumption than a fact, for no one resorts to a change of profession or perseveres in it except for the reason that upon the whole he is better off in it than in the old business. And it cannot be alleged that any trade or occupation is starved for want of followers. The Raja therefore speaks the Brahmin more than the shrewd thinker, when he wonders "why other classes should blindly imitate the Brahmins." He ought to know that the choice inspired by the new gained liberty of profession is favored and not checked by the economic condition of the country (which is itself the natural result of the good old institutions), and this fully accounts for what on his own assumption is a puzzling phenomenon; and indeed is it not from the same motive that the Brahmins have been for many centuries following non-Brahmanic professions, but no one blames them for thus trenching on the ground of the non-Brahmins, as Sir T. M. now scolds the latter for venturing on the preserves of the former. I fully expect however that the native press, working in the Brahmin interest, will applaud his remarks, shallow and one-sided as they are.—Yours, &c.,

April 22. A HINDOO.

THE PARSEE CRICKET TEAM.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Before we leave Bombay for England by the mail steamer to-day, kindly allow us to say a few words by way of explanation to the public, and to thanks to those who have shown real interest in our undertaking.

Our project, though we do not aim too high, is a bold one; so we hope to enlist the sympathies of the great English cricketing public on our side, to enable us to bring our undertaking to a successful issue. We do not go to England to attempt to snatch the laurels obtained by the English on their cricket fields; we do not go there to rival the Australians, or the great County clubs, but as votaries of their most noble game. We go to see English cricket so as to profit by it in the future, and at the same time to show the British public that their noble game has admirers even among the natives of India. Mr. Perozeshah Mehta rightly said on Saturday last, that "as artists go to Italy to do homage to the great masters, or as students, in the Middle Ages, went to the great seats of learning in places where science and philosophy had made their home, so now the Parsees were going to England to do homage to the English cricketers, to learn something of the noble and manly pastime in the very country which was its chosen home." This is our object and this our ambition. No matter if we lose matches, if our defeats will have but shown us how to offer stronger opposition next time. Thus we shall look upon our very defeats as half victories, and think our trouble and expenses amply repaid by the encouragement thus given us by the prominent cricketers of England. We are thankful to say that promises of help and hearty support have been already held out to us by some well-known wielders of the willow.

Here we must acknowledge that whatever we have acquired in this noble game is due to the encouragement and good-will of the English gentlemen who have met us on the different cricket fields of India. To the Bombay Gymkhana in particular we owe a great deal. They first brought us into prominence, and even in this undertaking of ours they have given us encouragement. We thank them heartily for the different favours confirred by them upon us during the last six weeks. Mr. F. D. Parker, the obliging Superintendent of the P. and O. Company, and other English gentlemen have shown us kindness in different ways, and to them we are also indebted a great deal.

A great matter for self-congratulation is that in this undertaking we have the sympathy of our community and of Parsee cricketers in general, as was evinced at the public dinner given to us on Saturday last by a representative gathering of the community, and another given us on Tuesday last by the Elphinstone Cricket Club.

We feel the absence of Dr. Kapadia and Messrs. Patell, Settna, Tata, Cooper, Doctor, &c., from our team, but it is a well-known fact that all of the best cricketers can seldom be got together any where to go out for such a long voyage. The advent of the first English team to Australia was conducive in a great measure to the advance made by Australian cricket. We have been anxiously waiting for many years for a similar visit to this country, and once or twice there did appear to be some chance of such an auspicious event coming to pass. In our endeavours for improvement we have at last taken this bold step, trusting to obtain by so doing the sympathy and good wishes of all lovers of this noble game in general and yours in particular.—Yours, &c.,

ARDESHIR B. PATELL,
Secretary, Parsee Cricket Team.

THE GOCULDAS TEJPAL HOSPITAL.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Now that Government have decided to place the Gocouldas Tejpal Hospital entirely under the Municipality, I think the local medical practitioners should put before the Municipal Corporation their views regarding its management, in order to enable the Municipality to conduct the hospital in the best possible way.

The Municipality having, for the first time in its life, obtained the control and management of a large city hospital, I think it should not make it a mere department under the Municipal Commissioner, and not content itself with giving treatment to the poor sick, but it must also aim at giving a scope to the local medical graduates to master practically all the branches of medical science. In doing this, the Municipality will look to the interest of the poor, and confer a great boon on the community in general, inasmuch as it will have contributed to produce and encourage experts in various branches of the medical science. And if another medical school is to be established on the principle of the grant-in-aid system, teachers from this hospital will at once be obtainable.

I believe that the Municipality was prepared to devote Rs. 50,000 for the management of the G. T. Hospital, if the Government would give it the entire control. Starting on this basis, and taking that the Hospital can be well managed within that amount, I would suggest the following:—

Government and the Municipality contribute towards medical staff and subordinates a little over Rs. 25,680 a year, which is as follows:—

1 Surgeon in charge at Rs. 1,300 a month. (The pay of the Surgeon depends on his rank in the service)	15,600
1 Apothecary or House Surgeon at Rs. 300 per month	3,600
1 Assist. Apothecary at Rs. 110 a month	1,320
	20,520
Besides six Hospital Assistants at the cost a year of	Rs. 3,360
2 Compounders at the cost a year of	600
1 Steward do.	1,200
	5,160

Total for Medical Staff and Subordinates...Rs. 25,680

Now, computing from the report of the Surgeon, G. T. Hospital, for the year 1883-84, published in the record of proceedings of the Town Council, page 191, it will be seen that subtracting the above amount from the total expenditure of the hospital, Rs. 43,435-12-11, there remains only Rs. 17,735-12-11, which are spent on food, clothing, medicines, and extras for the patients, for the salaries of the ward-boys, and dhobies, hamals, cooks, halalcores, and sundries, for a year.

The satisfactory working of a hospital must depend on its having a sufficient number of medical men on its staff, who at the same time should be efficient. It is physically impossible for one surgeon, however exceptional his qualifications, and however well paid he may be, to attend well daily to so large a number of patients as 120 in-door and about, or more than, 200 out-door; a large portion of the work must necessarily be left to the subordinates, and it is not very desirable that it should continue to be so. I am, in what I have said, supported by almost all the surgeons who have had the charge of the G. T. Hospital. And one of them not long ago said—"When the magnitude of the work done in the hospital is considered (the attendance of patients was 96,725 and the total numbers of operations performed was 2,168), it will, I think be conceded that the officer in charge should have a good, efficient, and reliable staff to assist him. I would, therefore, suggest the following medical staff and subordinates, with fixed pay, for the hospital:—

	Pay for a year Rs.
1 Chief Physician at Rs. 450 a month	5,400
1 Chief Surgeon at Rs. 400 a month	4,800
1 House or Resident Physician at Rs. 200 a month, with house	2,400
1 House or Resident Surgeon at Rs. 200 a month, with house	2,400
1 Junior Physician at Rs. 150 a month	1,800
1 Junior Surgeon at do. do.	1,800
Total of Medical Staff...Rs.	18,600

The Medical Subordinates as follows:—

2 Hospital Assistants at Rs. 60 each per Rs. month with quarters	1,440
4 Junior Hospital Assistants at Rs. 40 a month each	1,920
2 Compounders at Rs. 25 a month each	600
1 Steward at Rs. 100 a month	1,200
Total pay of the subordinates as it was before	5,160
Total for the Medical Staff and Subordinates pay for a year	23,760

Although I am considering the [illegible] expenses for diets and medicines [illegible] diminished by 15 or 17 per cent. [illegible] allowance [illegible] year 1883-84, viz. [illegible] 17,735-12-11

The pay of the [illegible] added to expenditure for the staff [illegible] 23,760 0 0

This [illegible] 41,495 12 11

[illegible] 8,504 3 1

50,000 0 0

This arrangement, it will be seen, is perfectly within the margin of the above-mentioned sum of Rs. 50,000, and it seems to be also more accommodating than the previous one, for whereas the pay of the medical establishment under the existing system, with only one surgeon, one apothecary and one assistant apothecary, amounts to Rs. 20,6[illegible] the pay of the establishment as now proposed, with one senior or chief physician, one chief surgeon, one resident physician, one resident surgeon, one junior physician, and one junior surgeon, amounts only to Rs. 18,600.

The hospital should be under the direct control of a committee, consisting of six members of the Corporation, together with the Municipal Commissioner, but the internal management should be left entirely to the chief physician, who should be responsible to the Committee for its satisfactory working, and for the maintenance of discipline, which, I know, is as much necessary for the success of the working of the hospital, as the efficiency of its staff.

Now the most difficult question will be—how should the medical men be chosen for the hospital? As at present canvassing for all purposes is become general, I would suggest that all appointments should be made by competitive examinations. This will take away all temptations to jobbery or nepotism, and will make merit alone the criterion of selection.

The work in the hospital being practical, the examinations should also be of a practical nature. For instance, for the chief physician the examination should have reference to questions as to the management of hospitals, diets, &c., and the practical diagnosis of cases; applicants to the chief surgeonship should be examined in practical surgery, not on the dead, but living, subjects; by this means alone, the qualities required in a practical surgeon can be well tested. A good practical surgeon should be skilful, judicious and prompt in the course to be adopted in every given case. But none should be allowed to compete for either of these appointments, who has not had at least ten years' practice. The resident physician and surgeon should be chosen by a similar practical competitive examination, and their acquaintance with ready means of relief in cases of accidents, but none should be allowed to compete who had has not had at least five years' practice.

The junior surgeon and physician should be chosen from among graduates who may be under five years' standing, according to their documental qualifications only. In their case I would dispense with the necessity of examinations.

The success of the hospital management under the Municipality will greatly depend on how it is manned, and the procedure to be followed for manning it must not be a chance one, but should be laid on a fixed basis and the principle, that shall give no scope for partiality or undue favour of any kind. It is, therefore, incumbent on the Municipality to make the selection of officers for the hospital by means of some such system, as competitive examinations of a practical nature. A better system, it may be possible to devise, and I have suggested the above, not because it is the only one possible or practicable, but because I think that some such caution is necessary to prevent the undue exercise of patronage of any kind, as far as possible.

I am aware that those who are now holding appointments at the hospital cannot be removed at once, but in the meantime appointments may be made, and the nominees may be given an opportunity of going to the hospital, and mastering the work they may be called upon to discharge any day.—Yours, &c.,

J. A. DA GAMA.

Fitzroy Lodge, Girgaum, April 22.

NOTES FROM THE DECCAN CAPITAL.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

POONA, APRIL 20.

HIS EXCELLENCY MAJOR-GENERAL SIR C. G. ARBUTHNOT, K.C.B., Royal Artillery, our Provincial Commander-in-Chief, has been sojourning at the Napier Hotel for several days.

Let your magnificent Crawford Market look to its laurels. It was under the best auspices that business opened in our new markets here a few days since. Situate not only in an admirably central locality, but even in one of the handsomest sites in Poona, these most desirable buildings are pressing on to a much desired state of completion. At present a large square, flagged in the best manner, and surrounded by roofed open stalls fitted with every requisite of modern appliance, has been placed at the service of the mutton butchers and their customers. An ornamental revolving table of two tiers in open iron work, and a proportion of sliding hooks, together with chopping-block, and such like fixtures, are furnished to each stall. Unlike the magnificent institution mentioned above, our new meat market is not roofed in—a circumstance not by any means without its compensations. The approaches are in two directions, towards the Cantonment and the City, respectively; and the entire arrangements are of a nature to suggest the wholesome and cleanly butchering and marketing of our meat food, even to the minds of Indian victuallers. The revolving slabs to which I have alluded would necessarily minimise the amount of handling to be done during moments of barter; and under supervision as thoughtful as the designing of the premises proves to have been, the permanent condition of the place should be as marked by attendance to cleanliness as is its present "new-broom" appearance. It is a marvellous short space of time, now of very unsavoury sheds or stalls, which had been permitted to remain until the new premises were ready for business, has been removed from its position in the irregular quadrangle, outside, where, I was informed, the beef, fish, vegetable, fruit, and flower-markets are to be. It is perfectly evident, from the number of visitors hanging about at a late hour, that the keenest local interest centres in our new and spacious market; and the efforts of the authorities to hasten the enterprise to a conclusion will meet with the fullest appreciation. Precedent for such institutions, such as the Club, the principal hotels, and the larger messes, the state of things ruling the purchase and sale of fresh provisions here has hitherto been lamentable to both parties concerned. Enterprising purveyors too often (and most disheartenningly) found considerable quantities of Bombay fish, gram-fed mutton, and best quality fruit left upon their hands: whilst again, small families, and persons under emergent hospitable necessities, had the greatest difficulties to contend with in seeking their supplies. It is needless to say that this state of things was the golden opportunity of extortioners. Fruit has been hawked around our suburbs, for which, as being slightly better than the average bazaar descriptions, quite fancy prices have been charged. The irregular rates of the prices charged for fish and the daintier articles of a day's marketing positively suggested dishonesty to cooks and butlers of the best principles; and, lastly, with wonderful ease, the urgency with which particular items were demanded, gave a hint to salesmen as to how far they might carry their extortion. Under the new system, it is to be hoped that housekeepers, of both sexes, and however honestly served, will find it not inconvenient to visit our new markets themselves; and, by pricing the various articles, place themselves in the best position for detecting dishonesty and doing justice to integrity. In a word, and from a dozen points of view, our new enterprise will prove of immense benefit to the community of Poona.

To many of us it has come as a great surprise that a long and fierce fight between two buffalo-bulls took place in the Parbutty direction without interference by the police; and that the faces most familiar at the Saturday wrestling matches were those of which greatest numbers were seen at the arena. I am informed that these bull-fights used to be common amusements years ago, frequently taking place on the race-course. One ordinary conclusion of the combats is the bolting of the defeated brute, closely followed by the conqueror; and it is said that some eight years ago, the two lumbering beasts, blind with terror or rage, dashed into a group of children, and caused either death or damage to such an extent that the authorities forbade the exhibition under penalty of fines or imprisonment. Are the same authorities only waiting now for another casualty, as for some more ringing of Mr. Gladstone's chapel bell before again stepping in with a veto on such demoralizing amusements?

Like most other Indian stations just now, we are ablaze with blossoms of the gold-mohur tree. I believe it is correct to say that one or two of the trees in the Government steam bakery compound were the first to bloom, closely followed by those in the Council Hall grounds. At all events the effect must seem strikingly gorgeous now to our later arrivals.

Colonel Cecil LaTouche, our cordially esteemed Cantonment Magistrate, is still confined to his room; but improving. No matter how well matters go on under his head from his retirement, his appearance in public is eagerly looked forward to by all classes and grades of Poona society. He will, however, probably proceed on leave first.

For the weeks of the Holi festival, days and nights were made hideous by the shrill music, the fireworks, and the deafening tom-tom-ing, without which Poona citizens find it impossible to be either wedded or happy. It is a sort of grim satisfaction to learn that it has not all been suffered in vain, however, as the number of marriages celebrated is stated to have reached some figure between the sixth and seventh hundreds. How many Rukmabais will come to the hateful existence from one hour, in March 1886, which yoked them, infants and ignorant, to as many Dadajis, it were absurd to conjecture; but when the inevitable reform comes, which is to give a woman and a man powers of natural selection, certain to have a beneficial effect on their posterity, it were as well to hope that measures may be taken to prevent the insane outlay on wedding ceremonies which sometimes hamper families for a life time. We saw for ourselves guys of children stuck up on over-fat and silver-caparisoned horses, and estimated the cost of cavalcade and concomitants at quite Rs. 100, in the case of an intermarriage between the children of two sices! Surely the usurous money-lender, with his moderate 25 per cent. rate of interest, was not far out of sight when such an arrangement as that was being made. Without indulging too deeply in sentiment, it is reasonable to suppose that a loving man and willing maid, come to years of mutual attraction and sensibility, would prefer to get joined together with less fuss and more furniture than accompany the union of two weary half-asleep little children, who would be more than human did they not chafe at their bondage the moment they awoke to consciousness of the burden of its unspontaneous duties and undesired rights. By-the-bye, unless I have taken the subject up quite wrongly, there has just passed a period of three years, during which no "bad seasons" have occurred, and which would of course account both for the great number lately occurring, and for the comparatively maturer age of some of the yellow-winged images who went through the streets trying to look as though they had been [illegible] at least once a week.

Signs of the times multiply around us. Even the [illegible] landlord, who has availed himself to the utmost of the possession of [illegible] bungalows in the [illegible] is [illegible] the [illegible] price, and the [illegible] the [illegible] district. The still-head duty on mowra spirit was raised from Rs. 1-12-0 to Rs. 2 per gallon of strength 25° U.P. and from 15 annas to Re. 1 per gallon of strength 60° U.P. in Ahmednagar, Poona, Sholapur, Satara, and Belgaum the rates of duty on country spirit of strength not below 25° U.P. were raised from Rs. 2-8 to Rs. 3 per gallon, and in Ahmedabad and Broach from Re. 2 to Rs. 2-4 per gallon, while out any alteration in the maximum selling price of liquor, while a surcharge of 2 annas was levied on each gallon of liquor issue for sale in the cities of Ahmedabad and Broach and in villages within a radius of ten miles round each. The rates of duty in Nasik were lowered from Rs. 2-8 to Rs. 2 per gallon, and the maximum selling price of liquor was also reduced in order to check smuggling from Khandesh and the Nizam's territory. The selling price of liquor in the Parantij Taluka was reduced for a similar reason. The central distillery system was for the first time introduced into the Kaira, Bijapur, and Dharwar Districts. In all the districts above mentioned and in Ratnagiri, Kanara, and Khandesh, in the last of which districts the manufature and sale of spirit have been brought under more efficient control, the strength of the weaker spirit allowed to be distilled was 60° U.P. instead of 50° U.P., the strength of stronger spirit continuing as before 25° U.P. The other changes of importance carried out in the year under review were the introduction of the tree-tax in the Bijapur District and the Sanand Taluka in the Ahmedabad District, the increase of the tax in certain Talukas of the Thana, Kolaba, and Surat Districts, and in the districts of Ratnagiri and Kanara simultaneously with an increase in Goanese territory. In the city of Surat and in the Chorasi and Jalalpur Talukas permission was given to owners of toddy trees and others to sell toddy at the foot of the trees or to sell it in shops on payment of license-fees. Except in the Town and Island of Bombay and in the Settlement of Aden, the sale of imported foreign spirit and of country spirit charged with the same rate of duty as imported spirit of strength below 15° U.P. was prohibited, while the maximum strength of other country spirit was limited to 25° U.P. The tree-tax is said to have been suspended in Aden in order to ascertain the number of trees the owners would be disposed to tap.

The results of the measures introduced in the City of Bombay were that the quantity of toddy spirit issued for sale fell from 281,365 gallons in 1883-84 to 16,857 gallons in 1884-85, while the quantity of mowra spirit imported from Uran rose from 415,979 to 531,425 gallons, and that there was an increase from Rs. 13,79,459 to Rs. 15,99,036 in the amount of duty derived from both classes of spirit. The consumption of mowra spirit would no doubt have been checked by the enhancement of the duty from that of the fact that there was very little toddy spirit procurable; but only trees tapped for the production of toddy spirit within the town of Bombay were 200 brab trees, and the average outturn of spirit 25. U. P. was only 10¼ gallons per tree,—a result which the Commissioner attributes to pressure brought to bear on the distiller by Bhandaris and other interested persons. The rate of production of the 3,000 brab trees tapped at Girin[illegible] for the supply of toddy spirit to Bombay was also, however, considerably below Mr. Pritchard's estimate of the average yield of cocoanut and brab palms. They were tapped for 6 months and the average outturn for that period was 5·9 gallons per tree.

The result of the reduction in the duty and in the maximum retail price of spirit in the Nasik District, which was considered necessary to check smuggling from Khandesh and the Nizam's territory, was that duty was paid on more than double the quantity of spirit on which it was paid in the previous year. It is stated that a proposal to disallow liquor shops within 3 miles on either side of the boundary between British and the Nizam's territory was laid before the Resident at Hydrabad by Mr. Prichard, but that no reply has yet been received. The Resident should be requested to use his good offices to obtain an early expression of the views of the Nizam's Government on the measure proposed. In the district of Surat, where there was no change in the still-head duty, there was a considerable increase in the quantity of mowra spirit on which duty was paid and a very large increase is shown in the quantity sold. This result is attributed to the fact that the contractor lowered his prices in order to compete with the liquor farmer of the Navsari Division of the Baroda territory. It is hoped that His Highness the Gaekwar, to whom representations have been made on this subject, will be induced to consent to the adoption of measures to prevent this competition, which obviously leads to wide-spread drunkenness. In the city of Surat there was a considerable decrease in the consumption of mowra spirit.

The immediate effect of an increase in the rates of tree-tax was in all cases, as usual, a reduction of the number of trees tapped. In Ratnagiri and Kanara, however, the realizations from the higher duty on the smaller number of trees were in excess of the realizations in the previous year from the lower duty on a larger number of trees. In Surat, Thana, and Kolaba the opposite was the case. It is stated that in the city of Surat and in Thana the absence of marriages among Hindus in the Sinvhasth year resulted in a decline in the consumption of liquor.

Mr. Moore calculates that the revenue obtained in Khandesh in the year under review was equivalent to a duty of only 15 annas per gallon of spirit of strength 25° U. P. consumed. His Excellency in Council will be glad to consider proposals for the introduction of the still-head duty system into the talukas which are traversed by the railway.

The considerable decline in the revenue in the districts of Karachi, Hyderabad, and Shikapur is attributed to objections to the condition that the maximum strength of the spirit manufactured should not exceed 25° U. P. It is reported, however, that the combination among persons who engage in the liquor trade still continues in the Karachi District. The Governor in Council is of opinion that the central distillery system with a still-head duty should be introduced into that district as a tentative measure in the ensuing year. The Commissioner is inclined to think that the introduction of that system into Sind at present would be premature, but, as was pointed out in reviewing the report for 1883-84, the existing conditions, particularly the fact that the competition to [illegible] and [illegible] combine to deprive Government of a considerable amount of legitimate revenue, appear to justify the adoption of that course.

The receipts on account of country liquor amounted to Rs. 67,84,814 in 1884-5 against Rs. 62,51,643 in 1883-4.

The amount paid by contractors in addition to the still-head duty on spirit removed for sale and the tax on trees tapped to make up the revenue guaranteed by them is very large, but the sums paid under this head in the districts of Dharwar and Bijapur, in which the system was brought into force in the year under review, fully account for the increase shown in the statement. DUSART'S SYRUP & WINE
LACTOPHOSPHATE OF LIME.

They enrich the blood, and strengthen and restore all the vital energies. Phosphate of Lime is the substance most necessary to our existence, and is indispensable for the formation of the bony and muscular system. When the body lacks the proper amount of Phosphate of Lime it gradually wastes away, and as soon as such symptoms are observed Dusart's Syrup (which is the natural restorer) should at once be taken.

DUSART'S SYRUP and WINE of inestimable benefit to CONVALESCENTS, OLD or WEAKLY PEOPLE; and RICKETY CHILDREN find in them the calcareous elements required for the solidification of the bones.

DUSART'S SYRUP and WINE are the best TONIC for LYMPHATIC subjects, and all suffering from DEBILITY, POORNESS of BLOOD and the EXCESSES of YOUTH. DUSART'S SYRUP arrests DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, and is well adapted to MOTHERS while SUCKLING and during PREGNANCY

CHAPOTEAUT'S WINE
OF PEPSIC-PEPTONE
TONIC, DIGESTIVE, AND NUTRITIVE.

CHAPOTEAUT'S WINE nourishes and sustains the Sick and Convalescent, without fatiguing the stomach by the process of digestion; and is far superior to Beef Teas, Jellies, and Meat Extracts which cannot nourish the body if the digestive organs are weakened.

This delicious Tonic Wine contains active PEPSINE and PEPTONE or "perfectly digested meat," ready for immediate assimilation with the blood.

The reconstituent properties of CHAPOTEAUT'S PEPTONE WINE are acknowledged in the London and Paris Hospitals.

It is a specific for DISEASES of the STOMACH, LIVER, and INTESTINES, and for INDIGESTION, DISTASTE FOR FOOD, ANÆMIA, CONSUMPTION, DIABETES, DYSENTERY, FEVERS; in extreme weakness and exhaustion arising from TUMOURS, CANCEROUS AFFECTIONS, and all wasting diseases, wherever an extra amount of nourishment is required.

CHAPOTEAUT'S PEPSIC PEPTONE WINE cannot be too highly recommended as a TONIC STIMULANT and RESTORATIVE to the AGED, DELICATE FEMALES, Lymphatic and Subjects children, and to increase the quantity and richness of the milk in the nursing.

CHAPOTEAUT'S PEPSINE
275 PEARLS.
(Dialysed Pepsine.)

These Soluble Pearls contain in each, 4 grains of pure (sheep) Pepsine capable of digesting 150 times its weight of meat.

INDIGESTION, WIND ON THE STOMACH, FEELING OF HEAVINESS, SICKNESS, LOSS OF APPETITE AND HEADACHES ARE CURED with the first dose of CHAPOTEAUT'S PEPSINE PEARLS.

CHAPOTEAUT'S MORRHUOL.
The ACTIVE CURATIVE PRINCIPLES extracted from 25 times their weight of COD-LIVER OIL.

The Paris Medica Tribune has lately published the discovery by Mr. Chapoteaut of Morrhuol, the curative and active principles isolated from the oily and indigestible part of Cod Liver Oil.

CHAPOTEAUT'S MORRHUOL is contained in small soluble capsules, each of which represents twenty-five times its weight, or more than a teaspoonful of Cod-Liver Oil.

From the experiments made in the hospitals, it has been proved that MORRHUOL is more efficacious than Cod-Liver Oil, and that BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, NIGHT-SWEATS, PAINS IN THE CHEST, AND CONSUMPTION, yield to its influence; after the first few doses the sleep becomes sound and the appetite returns, which at once indicates an amelioration.

PALE, WEAKLY CHILDREN with NO APPETITE, and those inclined to be RICKETY or afflicted with SCABS, RUNNING SORES ON THE NECK AND FROM THE NOSE AND EARS, and who are continually SLEEPLESS and RESTLESS, find in MORRHUOL the curative and calming properties which these affections require, and an increased appetite and healthy appearance soon prove the truly wonderful effects of this remedy.

P. CHAPOTEAUT, CHEMIST, PARIS.

PELLETIER'S QUININE CAPSULES

Those capsules contain 2 grains each of PURE PELLETIER'S QUININE in its unaltered state; they are soft and unlike other capsules are immediately soluble in the stomach, thus affording prompt relief in INTERMITTENT FEVERS, AGUE, MALARIA, AND FEVERS of a PUTRID or TYPHOID character NEURALGIA, HEADACHES, and RHEUMATISM.

Each capsule bears the name "Pelletier," which is the best guarantee of purity.

MARCKS & COMPANY, Ld.,
WATCH MANUFACTURERS, &c.,
BOMBAY AND POONA.

A GOOD WATCH is one of the most remarkable productions of human skill and patience.

WATCH MANUFACTURING being the original branch of our business, in which we have had considerable experience, enables us to render our assistance in aiding our constituents, skilfully to elect the description of a Time-keeper, best adapted to their respective requirements.

Watches are manufactured, and we could sell them in Bombay for 7 or 8 Rupees each, but we prefer to confine ourselves to a thoroughly reliable and honest article, worth the money one spends.

It is always our rule to recommend a purchaser to give the best price he can afford for a watch, if he needs a durable and reliable time-keeper. Mofussil purchasers, on informing us the amount they desire to invest, may rest assured that their orders will receive the same care and attention as if they were themselves present.

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE

Is the only Patent Medicine of the kind or name awarded Certificate of Merit at the Calcutta International Exhibition, 1883-84; and the only Trade Mark—"PHOSPHODYNE"—Registered and Protected under the Trade Marks Acts, 38 and 39, Vic., 91. Certified by the Registrar of Trade Marks, London.

HEALTH, STRENGTH, AND ENERGY.

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE,

The ONLY SAFE, RELIABLE, PHOSPHORIC REMEDY ever discovered for the Permanent Cure of Brain Weakness, Paralysis, Impotence of Mind or Limb, Sleeplessness, Harassing Dreams, Premature Decay of Vital Power, and all Functional and Diseased Conditions of the System, dependent upon the Deficiency of the Vital Forces. It

Cures Dyspepsia, Nerve, and Heart Disease.
Cures Kidney and Liver Complaints.
Cures all Disorders of the Blood.
Cures Depression and loss of Appetite.
Cures Consumption and General Debility.
Checks all Wasting of the Vital Forces.
From whatever cause arising.

THE EFFECT of this Remedy in Nervous Debility and its Kindred Evils is immediate and Permanent, all the Miserable and Distressing Symptoms disappearing with a rapidity that is REALLY MARVELLOUS.

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE,

whilst pleasant to the taste and agreeable to the stomach, never fails to Purify and Enrich the Blood and thoroughly invigorate the Brain, Nerves and Muscles. Its energising effects are shown from the first day of its administration by a remarkable increase of Nerve and Intellectual Power, with a feeling of Courage, Strength, and Comfort to which the patient has long been unaccustomed. Digestion is invigorated. The appetite increases wonderfully. The bowels become regular. Sleep becomes calm and refreshing. The face becomes fuller, the lips red, the eyes brighter, the skin clear and healthy, and the hair acquires strength, showing the importance of its action on the organs of nutrition.

The very remarkable Cures effected by DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE have induced numbers of Physicians to prescribe and use it in their own families, and in several of the London Hospitals.

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE is sold in Bottles, at 4s. 6d. and 11s., by all Chemists and Druggists throughout India

Full Printed Directions, for the guidance of Patients in the Self-Treatment of the above Diseases, are enclosed with each Bottle.

Manufactured only at

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE LABORATORY, HAMPSTEAD, LONDON, N.W.

BEWARE OF VILE IMITATIONS [illegible] UNLESS every Bottle bears the British Government Stamp with the words DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE, [illegible] thereon. The great Popularity of DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE has caused a Miserable Imitation in India and the Colonies, viz., Dr. Lyon's, these useless Drugs by Ignorant Pretenders. See that the above words are on the Government Stamp before purchase and thus avoid dangerous consequences by the use of Spurious Imitations.

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE

ACTUALLY CREATES New Nervous Fluid and Brain matter by supplying the Blood with its Electric Life element, PHOSPHORUS, thereby infusing new Life Power into all parts of the system.

The unequalled Curative properties of this Preparation have spread its fame throughout every Nation and Country in the World as the only medicine of real efficacy for Renovating Broken-down Constitutions, Restoring the fullest and most vigorous conditions of Robust Health and Manhood under every circumstance, and at every age, by nourishing, fertilising, and developing all the powers of every necessary part of the Human Organization, thus ensuring a sound and Permanent restoration of the impaired organs wherever a deficiency of natural vigour has for years existed. So that all the Duties of Life may be pursued with Confidence and Pleasure.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS' CRUCIAL TESTS and Thousands of unimpeachable Testimonials from all parts of the world, and from the highest Medical Authorities, prove conclusively the Verdict Universal that in the World of scientific research no other Phosphoric Preparation has received such well-merited praise and distinguished recognition.
